

2014 Call for papers

We are happy to announce that submissions are now open for the 2014 NeuroPsychoEconomics Conference in Munich, Germany. The conference will be held from May 29-30, 2014 at Ludwig Maximilian University (Human Science Center, Goethestrasse 31, 80336 Munich, Germany). Conference co-chairs are Prof. Dr. Ernst Poeppel, Professor of Medical Psychology, and Dr. Kai Fehse, Research Fellow in Psychology and Neuroscience. The deadline for submissions is March 15, 2014.

The conference theme of 2014 is:

“Neuroscience of Cognition, Communication, Economic Decision Making, and Marketing: Innovation through Collaboration”

Manuscripts should combine concepts from neuroscience and/or psychology with problems in economics, business, management, marketing, or finance. Topics may include (but are not restricted to):

- Application of concepts and methods from neuroscience and/or psychology in solving problems in economics, business, management, marketing, or finance (e.g., behavioral economics, decision science, consumer behavior, behavioral finance, and organizational behavior),
- Analysis of interpersonal and social behavior with the means of neuroscience and/or psychology (e.g., social neuroscience and cultural neuroscience),
- Evaluation of the state of the field of research in neuroeconomics, decision neuroscience, consumer neuroscience, neuromarketing, neurofinance, and organizational neuroscience,
- Discussion of ethical and legal issues at the interface of psychology, neuroscience, and business/economic research, and
- Presentation of state-of-the-art methods for investigating neuroeconomic problems (e.g., fMRI, TMS, DTI, EEG/ERP, SCR, genetics).

Both empirical and conceptual manuscripts are welcome. The conference language is English.

Pre-Conference

A pre-conference workshop on “Brain Time: Understanding the Temporal Processes that Underlie Our Cognitive Processes and Behavior” will be held on Thursday, May 29, 2014 at 1PM. Attendance is FREE for registered conference participants! This workshop will feature interactive lectures by researchers from LMU’s Human Science Center. Please see details in the conference program, published in April 2014.

Competitive paper submissions

- Manuscripts for the 2014 NeuroPsychoEconomics Conference must be submitted by March 15, 2014. The submission website can be found at <http://www.jnpe.org> (under “Conference” and “Submissions”).
- Submissions can either consist of a full paper of up to 40 double-spaced pages or an extended abstract of up to 1,500 words.
 - Full paper submissions (up to 40 double-spaced pages) will go through a double-blind peer review process. Full paper submissions must be accompanied by a cover letter that indicates the intention to publish the paper, if accepted, either in its entirety in the “Journal of Neuroscience, Psychology, and Economics” (ISSN 1937-321X) or in abstract form in the “NeuroPsychoEconomics Conference Proceedings” (ISSN 1861-8243). Full paper submissions must include a short abstract of no more than 350 words and conform to the author guidelines of the American Psychological Association (APA). Please see <http://www.jnpe.org> (under “Conference” and “Submissions”) for more submission information.

- Extended abstract submissions (up to 1,500 words) will go through an expedited review process and should go beyond a research proposal (i.e., empirical extended abstracts should present information on data and results, conceptual extended abstracts should clearly state their theoretical contribution). Extended abstract submissions must include a short abstract of no more than 350 words (for publication in the “NeuroPsychoEconomics Conference Proceedings,” ISSN 1861-8243) and conform to the author guidelines of the American Psychological Association (APA). Please see <http://www.jnpe.org> (under “Conference” and “Submissions”) for more submission information.
- All cover letters must include the full names and affiliations of all coauthors as well as the e-mail address of the corresponding author.
- In submitting a manuscript, the authors affirm that, if accepted, at least one author will register for the 2014 NeuroPsychoEconomics Conference and appear at the conference to present the paper.

Poster submissions

- Posters for the 2014 NeuroPsychoEconomics Conference must be submitted by March 15, 2014.
- Posters will go through an expedited review process. Poster submissions must be accompanied by a cover letter that clearly states “poster submission,” an extended abstract (up to 1,500 words) that describes the research presented on the poster, and a short abstract (up to 350 words) for inclusion in the “NeuroPsychoEconomics Conference Proceedings” (ISSN 1861-8243). The extended abstracts for the poster submissions must conform to the author guidelines of the American Psychological Association (APA). Please see <http://www.jnpe.org> (under “Conference” and “Submissions”) for more submission information.
- The cover letter must include the full names and affiliations of all coauthors as well as the e-mail address of the corresponding author.
- If accepted, posters to be presented at the conference may have a maximum size of 120 cm (height) x 90 cm (width).
- The best posters will be invited for presentation in a special session at the conference (10 minutes verbal presentation).
- In submitting a poster, the authors affirm that, if accepted, at least one author will register for the 2014 NeuroPsychoEconomics Conference and appear at the conference to present the poster.

We look forward to your submissions!
